A Cast of Unforgettable Characters

At the heart of Berkeley Mews lies a motley crew of unforgettable characters:

* Frederick Cerebus, the hapless yet endearing intellectual * Dudley Edgington, the sardonic and cynical artist * Jeremy Jaundiced, the eternally gloomy poet * Linda McPherson, the fiery and independent landlady * Seymour Snook, the neurotic and accident-prone lodger

These characters and their bizarre antics have delighted and amused readers for generations.

A Nostalgic Time Capsule

"Sorry, Ruined Your Childhood: Berkeley Mews Comics" serves as a nostalgic time capsule, transporting readers back to the carefree days of childhood. The strips offer a glimpse into a bygone era, capturing the social and cultural zeitgeist of the 1980s and 1990s.

Prepare to laugh out loud as you witness Frederick's attempts at erudite conversations, Dudley's disdain for modern art, Jeremy's existential musings, Linda's fiery temper, and Seymour's slapstick mishaps.
