Excerpt

In a letter to his brother Theo, written in October 1888, Van Gogh describes his experiences in Arles:

“I am very happy here, and I work a great deal. The countryside is very beautiful, and I am always discovering new motifs. The people here are very friendly, and I have made many friends. I am living in a small house, which I have decorated with my paintings. I am very happy here, and I think I shall stay for a long time.”
